

Please allow local programming to thrive. We have lost another local station KBOI, to computer generated, generic dribble. Who cares about the "national weather report", I am interested in what the people of my home town are doing and thinking. Thank you.